

Online Information

The Voracious Volcano Mystery

Fascinating Facts

Yellowstone National Park

- Nearly 4,000 bison, also known as buffalo, live in Yellowstone.
- There are more thermal features in Yellowstone than any other place on earth, like geysers, hot springs & steam vents.
- After Congress saw photographs and paintings of Yellowstone, they decided to make it the first national park to protect it for everyone to enjoy.
- Yellowstone has its own Grand Canyon with the Yellowstone River running through it.
- When hiking in Yellowstone, you should make noise to warn any bears that you are near.
- The center of Yellowstone Park sits on a large volcano that has been dormant for 600,000 years.
- Yellowstone's Steamboat Geyser is the highest erupting geyser in the world.
- Yellowstone's isolated southwest corner is famous for dozens of waterfalls.
- Yellowstone National Park is located in Wyoming, Montana, and Idaho.

