

WHAT'S YOUR STORY?

It's time to use your imagination! Pick an adult character listed in the Postlogue of The Secret of Eyesocket Island. Write a story about this person's childhood. Talk about where this person grew up, what his or her family was like, and what things he or she liked to do for fun! It's all up to you!

A large writing area designed to look like an open notebook. On the left side, there is a vertical spiral binding. The main area is filled with horizontal lines for writing. The right side of the notebook is rounded, suggesting a page turn.
