THE GIGGLING GHOST Girl Scout MYSTERY

Lessons Learned:

Patience! As irritating as he can be, Christina never takes her frustrations out on her little brother Grant. She gets upset with him from time to time but makes sure to never overreact.

Be prepared! The girls always carry what they think they will need – and they always think ahead.

Safety! The girls always stay together so that no one gets lost.

Positive Focus! The girls learn that Juliette Gordon Low's marriage was not always a happy one, but she went on to create the Girl Scouts.

Kindness! The girls are sympathetic to Miss Aggie, and offer to come back and visit her to share pictures from their Camporee.

SUMMARY:

Christina, who has a knack for stumbling upon (and solving) mysteries, heads to Savannah, GA where she and her Girl Scout friends are eager to join in the festivities for the National Camporee celebrating the Girl Scouts' 100th Anniversary.

But as they begin exploring the historic city, they discover that someone is leaving creepy clues that lead them to River Street, a spooky cemetery, on a ghost tour, and even to Juliette Gordon Low's birthplace. Soon, they find themselves in the middle of a real mystery that is going to need all the scouting skills they have, as well as their friendship, to work out! With just a few days until the Camporee begins, the girls put their skills into action to solve a mystery filled with giggles, goose bumps and "s'more!"
